From President John

A combined meeting with the Murray Bridge Rotary Club will be held next Tuesday 8 June at the Mount Barker Golf Club at 6.00pm for a 6.15pm start. This is a Partners Night and the cost is $16. Anyone wanting to attend but hasn't put their name down, please contact Pres. John a.s.a.p.

The Ric Maurovic painting will be formally handed over to Unley Mayor Michael Keenan for hanging in the library at a small ceremony at 5.45pm on Tuesday 29 June. The presentation should take no more than 30 minutes, so members won't be late for our dinner meeting. Please let Pres. John know if you would like to attend.

The Thrift Shop Volunteers Morning Tea was held on Sunday last; 50-60 were present and several said it was the "best yet". The volunteers seemed very pleased and the Sunday morning time seemed to suit most people. Pres. John thanked Ron Schubert and the Thrift Shop Committee for organising the event.

There will be a combined meeting of the incoming and outgoing Boards on 22 June.

A letter has been received from District Governor Graeme Dodsworth seeking expressions of interest from anyone interested in being the DG in 2006-2007. It is up to Clubs to make a nomination. Nominations close on 28 July 2004.

The Australian Rotary Health Research Fund has written to the Club advising of a fund raising raffle called "Toss the Coin 2004". The total value of prizes is $40,000. The first prizewinner gets tickets to the AFL Grand Final, gets to toss the coin for the captains, and gets a return trip to London; the second prize is a Caulfield cup package.

On the Spot

Joan Reed: We have an outbound Exchange Student for next year and she will be going to Germany. Her name is Melissa Nesbitt, a Year 12 student from Unley High School and she will be coming along to meet the Club shortly.

Bob Laws: The Planting Weekend on 19-20 June "looks like being a fine weekend according to the long-range forecast". Bob has booked six cabins (all with en suite facilities) in the Wellington Caravan Park. As there are around 700 trees to be planted and guards have to be put around them all, the planting will be done on both Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. Rob Paternoster is going to carry the plants down to Wellington. If anyone who has not yet booked a cabin and would like to attend the weekend, please let Bob Laws know as soon as possible as additional cabins may be hard to come by.

Lindsay England: As the Book Sale looms Dean and Maeve Swinden are being overwhelmed by books, which need to be collated, priced, packed in boxes and stored. A team will get together for this purpose is on Sunday 6 June at 12.30pm at Dean and Maeve's for about four hours. This exercise will have to be repeated regularly right up to the Book Sale, so there will still be many opportunities for members to participate in this project.

Greg Love: There will be a barbeque for new members, mentors, potential mentors, and partners, at the home of Greg Love and Kaylene Kranz on Sunday 13 June at 11.30 for 12.00pm. The cost is $7 per head. Would those wishing to attend please let Greg know by Tuesday 8 June.

Ron Schubert reported that the Volunteers Morning Tea last Sunday was an outstanding success, especially as the date didn't clash with many other events and so more volunteers could attend.

The Saturday morning Thrift Shop roster for July to August is now open for members to put their names down. Please contact Ron if you would like to be on the roster.

Sergeant's Session

The Sergeant for the evening was Bob Laws. Norm Wallace won the money and Bob Mills won the wine.

Rotary's Educational Programs

As the world's largest privately funded source of international scholarships, Rotary hopes to build world understanding and promotes the exchange of ideas across the globe.

Since 1947, The Rotary Foundation has awarded more than US$1.1 billion in humanitarian and educational grants. Each grant is administered by local Rotary clubs. Rotary's educational programs include:

Rotary Centres for International Studies in Peace and Conflict Resolution

A two-year master's-level program to train future diplomats and community leaders on issues of peace and conflict resolution.

Seventy Rotary World Peace Scholars are selected annually from around the world to study at eight participating universities:

- Duke University and the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, USA
- Sciences Po (L'Institut d'Études Politiques), Paris, France
- Universidad del Salvador, Buenos Aires, Argentina
- University of Bradford, West Yorkshire, England
- International Christian University, Tokyo, Japan
- University of Queensland, Brisbane, Australia
- University of California-Berkeley, California, USA

Ambassadorial Scholarships

1,200 scholarships are awarded to college students around the globe to study in another country for three months to two years. These students serve as ambassadors of goodwill in their host country.

Youth Exchange

This program enables 8,000 teenage students around the world to study in another country and learn about their history, language, and culture.

Rotary Grants for University Teachers

Grants awarded to university faculty, who can teach for up to 10 months at an institution of their choice in developing countries.

Group Study Exchange

The program enables groups of young professionals aged 25-40 to participate in exchanges visits between countries for four to six weeks.

Rotary is an organization of 1.2 million business and professional leaders united worldwide, who provide humanitarian service, and help to build goodwill and peace in the world.

2004 Council on Legislation

The 2004 Council on Legislation will take place Sunday, 13 June through Friday, 18 June in Chicago, Illinois. The Council is the legislative body of Rotary International, which meets once every three years and has the authority to amend the constitutional documents of RI. Each of Rotary's 529 districts will have a representative at the Council to debate and vote on legislation. District 9520's representative at the Council will be Geoff Simpson.

The Council will operate under the Chairmanship of Bill Huntley and the Vice-Chairmanship of Mark Daniel Maloney. The Parliamentarian is Ray Klinginsmith. Members-at-large include Abraham Gordon, Daniel Mooers and Bill Sergeant. The Chief Sergeant-at-Arms is Rudolf Hoerndler.

30 June 2003 was the deadline for legislation to be received for the 2004 Council on Legislation, and the General Secretary received over 600 pieces from clubs, districts, the General Council of RIBI and the RI Board.

The Constitution & Bylaws Committee, under the chairmanship of Allan Frumkin, with members Jerry Piao Yu and John Boag, has met seven times since July 2003 to review all of the legislation. The Committee made recommendations regarding each piece to the RI Board.

Volume 1 of the legislation, which contains 427 pieces of "regular" legislation, is currently available for download from Rotary International's web site download web page at <http://www.rotary.org/newsroom/downloadcenter/support/council.html>. Volume 2 includes pieces 428 through 530 of the "regular" and "deficient" legislation and is also available for download.

For Rotarians who wish to learn a bit more about the Council, Chairman Bill Huntley has written an Overview of the Council for the zone institutes, which is also available for download from the RI web site's download web page.

West Africa mobilised for final assault against polio

From 23 February, 10 countries held simultaneous polio immunization campaigns, targeting 63 million children in Benin, Burkina Faso, Cameroon (20 February), Central African Republic, Chad (joining in March), Ghana, Niger, Nigeria and Togo. Political, religious and traditional leaders teamed up to launch the activities, and tens of thousands of vaccinators went house-to-house to administer the vaccine directly to every child over the following three days.
