From President Ron

President Ron thanked the membership committee for the excellent job that they did at the Information evening on the 27-7-04. Also he reminded members of the forthcoming partner's night at Café Bongiorno on the 17th of August and issued an invitation to all prospective members.

A reminder was given to all members that if they are on a roster and are unable to fulfil the commitment then it is that individual responsibility to find a replacement. President Ron also announced that he unfortunately had his brief case stolen, which contained the Presidential Collar that had the various theme badges on it from the last 10 years.

On the Spot

John Russell: Subscriptions are now due; please forward money to John. Fees set at $90 plus optional wine raffle $24 and bulletin if posted $15. John highlighted that is the bulletin is e-mail then the member incurs no cost.

Adrian Sobels: A reminder that the partners night on August the 17th at Café Bongiorno is a 3 course meal including a drink for the cost of $25. Time is 6.15 pm for 6.30pm start.

Lindsay England: A request was made for volunteers to attend Dean Swinden's home on Saturday morning 9 to 9.30 am for more sorting of books.

Sergeant's Session

The Sergeant was Ian Pearson who did an excellent job in his debut. Lindsay England won the Lucky Squares and Joan Reed was the deserving winner of the wine.

Guest Speaker

Joan Reed introduced our guest speaker Claire Weekley who has won the state final of the Plain English Speaking Award and has been given the honour of representing South Australia in the National Finals that are to held in Alice Springs. She is a Year 11 student at A Lady of the Sacred Heart College at Enfield. Claire's topic was "A Vote for Youth". News Spot

Your new bulletin editor Joan Reed now has a new spot. This is where members of our club have the opportunity of informing other members about interesting things they are doing, done or have recently read. It can be of a Rotary nature or general informative topic. Humour never goes astray so even a funny experience that you made like to share.

This week I challenge all members who have Internet access to have a look at the site. If you do not know the password contact me on email jreed@mail.rah.sa.gov.au or phone on (W) 8222 5483 or (H) 8379 8470 for the details. I thoroughly recommend this site to you and you never know there may be a quiz about the site at some stage.

If any member wishes to provide an article for this space please have it to me no later than the Tuesday night of our meeting ready for me to place in the Bulletin the next day.
