No Spot announcements this week

Sergeant's Session

There were no Sargent sessions at this function but every one participated in a Ladies and Gentleman's HEADS AND TAILS event with Genese Mullins being a hot contender in the finals.

Guest Speakers

Ian Jenkinson President of the Hyde Park club introduced Paul Hodges. Paul is from Youth Opportunities and he gave an excellent overview of a program that he conducts with disadvantaged and troubled youth. More will be disclosed at one of our future meetings when we ask Paul to come as our guest. Paul spoke of a program where clubs can sponsor a candidate for the 10-week course for $500 and the challenge was put on the floor for responses from the Clubs present at the dinner. A very favourable response was received.

Satisch Gupta spoke regarding the forthcoming Conference in New Orleans in 2005 for details see President Ron.

Buckets Of Money

Rotarians against Malaria (RAM) member Colin O'Donnell from Burnside reports that another bucket-load of coins and notes (20 Kilos in all) has been collected from Travelex agencies around SA. These are loose coins and notes that travellers bring in from overseas that are left over when they convert their money. Proceeds are used for RAM projects.
