From President Ron

- A reminder that the Annual General Meeting is on the 7th of December and the nomination forms are available at the front table for the vacant positions. We require 2 Board members and Secretary and Treasurer. Nominations must be in by 8pm next Tuesday the 23rd of November.
- The Annual Christmas Carols are on Sunday the 12th of December on the Memorial Gardens starting at 7.30pm
- This year we have the Australian Army Band and the Australian Girls Choir. The MC for the night is Xavier Minnicon. Rotarians will be requested to volunteer to help with letter boxing and other activities on the night. All members are encouraged to bring family and friends.
- President Ron announced that past Rotarian Ollie Clarke who has been a member of The Adelaide Symphony Orchestra Board since 2001 has been appointed as Chairman of the Board. Ollie's wife Joan is a volunteer in the Thrift Shop.
- A letter has been received from the Salvation Army thanking the Club for its continued support of the Salvation Army Red Shield appeal. They have 100 tickets to be given away to the volunteers to see the movie HO HO HO "Christmas with the Kranks" on Sunday the 28th of November at 4pm. To book contact Reno by phoning 0409 365 803.

On the Spot

John Russell: As Immediate Past President it is John's duty to chair the Presidents Advisory Committee. A number of members have been approached to be the next in becoming Vice President and at this stage there have been no acceptances of the role. If there is any member who is interested or wants more information please see John.

Peter James: Peter is calling for action on the Cotton Club's 60's night Rotary Club of Unley's function on the 25th of November. Please indicate to Peter if you are attending.

Bob Laws: It is time for tube stuffing again for trees for life This has been arranged for this Saturday the 20th of November. At the Howard's from 9.30 am till 12 noon the more hands the better. Also we are looking for people to nurture the seeds following this Saturdays event.

John Nowland: If any Rotarians would like to entertain Issa our exchange student over a weekend or have her around for a meal during the week please see John to arrange. It is a great opportunity to get to know Issa and hear more about her country and experiences. She is also collecting badges so please feel free to pass any on to her.

Mavis Martin: Mavis still has some cakes and puddings. If any one needs more to "flog off" please see Mavis and the conclusion of the meeting.

ANNOUNCEMENT A Date for your diary. Tuesday the 14th of December is the Club's Christmas Dinner at the Kooyonga Golf Club $40 per head. This is a partner's night and the price includes a 3-course dinner.

Sergeant's Session

The Sergeant was Bob Laws Joan Reed won the Lucky Square and Ken Daly won the wine.

Guest Speakers

Mavis Martin introduced the guest speakers Brian Ross and Amos Bennett who gave an excellent presentation on the Mercy Ships, which is a volunteer organisation that goes to Third World countries to perform surgery on the underprivileged community members.

Since 1978 the Mercy Ships have served 53 countries, rendered services to 2.3 million people performed 19,000 operations educated and trained 48,00 people. Brian showed a PowerPoint presentation that I am sure would have touch all the members hearts that were in the room. An excellent cause and a very well run organisation.
