From President Ron

1. A reminder that the Annual General Meeting is on the 7th of December and the nomination forms are available at the front table for the vacant positions. Forms need to be in by 8pm this evening.
2. The Annual Christmas carols are on Sunday the 12th of December on the Memorial Gardens starting at 7.30pm See notice later in the bulletin
3. President Ron read a letter from OSSA thanking us for our donation of $5000.
4. The Rotary Club of Port Pirie has a Directory that lists all the details of clubs that members can attend for a make up. The directory cost is $2 please see Ken Haines if you would like a copy.
5. It was highlighted to members that the correct protocol for taking leave from the club is to put an application in writing to the secretary requesting Leave of Absence. This is then recorded in the attendance book for our records.
6. The club's Christmas Dinner is on the 14th of December at the Kooyonga Golf Course. Notice further in the Bulletin.
7. Our combined Christmas meeting with Eastwood and Hyde Park will be held on the 22nd of December at 7.30am at the Unley Sports Club. There will be NO MEETING ON 21st DECEMBER.
8. A thank you note from Margaret Payne for the card received on the occasion of her birthday.
9. A reminder to members who are placing details in the District Directory that fees are now due. Please pay President Ron at the conclusion of the meeting.
10. We have received a request from the Unley City Council requesting members to attend a meeting on Tuesday the 21st of December to discuss the Australia Day arrangements for the citizenship ceremony which is an Annual event where the service clubs are involved with the catering and entertaining of the new citizens.

On the Spot

Peter James: Unfortunately due to lack of numbers the 60's night at the Cotton Club in North Adelaide has be postponed and will be rescheduled for February next year. Stay tuned for more information.
