Special Presentation

It was with great pleasure that President Ron call Bob Mills to the podium. On the 18th of December it was announce that Bob had been a member of Rotary for 25 Years. President Ron acknowledged Bob's reliability and commitment to Rotary over his 25 years. Bob learnt his Rotary craft from 3 well experienced and respected members, Ron Pascoe Keith Pearce and Harvey Limbert. It was noted that these 3 Rotarians were very much responsible for placing Unley in to such a strong and sound position. Bob's history includes Club President 1994-1995, Club Committees, Assistant District Governor and District Committees, and he reformed the Alumni. Bob has now makes POOTY his annual responsibility and he does this very well. He is also the club's Historian. Bob was presented with a badge to acknowledge his 25 years service, and our club hopes he will continue for another 25 years.

Sergeant's Session

The Sergeant for the night was Natalie Bowen who was assisted by her band of Merry Male Sergeants. It was a fun session with gifts given to all. President Ron was magically transformed into Father Christmas and all those who had he opportunity to sit on his lap seemed to enjoy themselves, Let's hope all the wishes come true.
