Spots

Joan Reed: Apologies for the bulletin being late.

As previously mentioned Unley is sponsoring RYLA this year at Nunyara in July. They are currently seeking participants to attend the weeklong activities. If any member knows of any between the ages of 18 and 25 who would benefit from this leadership program please see me so we can submit their names.

As well as hosting the camp for RYLA we are also hosting the awardees Graduation Dinner on the Saturday night. This is the 23rd of July at Ayres House. Cost is $34 per head for a great 3-course dinner, and it is a partner's night. We have Ann Lee doing a piano solo and it will be an excellent evening Partners are welcome. Also on the Tuesday night there is a BBQ following an orienteering exercise and if any members would like to come up and help with the BBQ and meet the participants please see Martin. These nights have a reputation of being excellent.

Also we are looking for items to go into the folders, e.g. pens notepads etc.; if any one would like to contribute please see Joan.

Geoff Hill: We need to start the next roster for the Thrift Shop, and people can put their names on the emergency list at the bottom of the roster. If you are rostered on to the Thrift Shop and are unable to make your shift please try and find a replacement. Joan will include the current roster as an attachment with the bulletin so that you can check your diaries.

Bob Laws: Tree planting was due to be held on the 9 and 10th of July but due other commitments it will be changed to the 16th and 17th of July at Wellington.

Sergeants Session

Bob Laws was the Sergeant this evening. Alex Jonson the wine and ? won the Lucky Square.

Guest Speaker: Exchange Student Issa Alsen

Issa was introduced by John Nowland her counsellor who thanked Issa for teaching him a lot during her stay. He has learnt about Graffiti art, and tagging, Mobile phone bills, cameras and the need to have a good one, coffee shops. He has learnt that Issa does not like millipedes. She has been a wonderful ambassador for her country and she has always mixed well and been keen to have a go.

Issa acknowledged that before she came to Australia she was wondering what impact she would make on Australia. But she found out it was Australia making an impact on her. She has made massive changes in her life while being here. She has grown incredibly and enjoys life and takes every opportunity when available and she has grown as an individual. She is so happy about her appearance and what she looks like, she had always wanted to do something about it but said she was always a bit lazy about it and not determined. In Australia she took the opportunity to change.

Things Issa learnt while in Australia:

- Friends don't grow on trees as I always thought, and you should cherish them.
- That her mother and her have a really splendid relationship when we are far away from each other.
- Vegemite is the absolute best spread to put on someone else's sandwich.
- Life should be enjoyable, that you should appreciate what you have and what you are, 'cause you will never be anybody else.
- If you want to change it's up to you to change it.
- That "The Crows" is the only real footy team.
- The only reason we lost so much during the ashes in England is because we feel sorry for the pommies. Since they can't succeed in anything else we deliberately lost.
- That you should never trust a New Zealander alone with a sheep.
- That you should despise Victorians, not for a true reason, just because.
- There is more to Australia than Steve Irwin.

Issa thanked everyone that has made a contribution to her year and presented the club with a painting that she has done. From her talk it was very clear that Issa had a great year and has blossomed into a lovely young lady.
