Spots

Stephen Westgarth spoke of a wine supplies. O'Leary Walker 2005 Polish Hill Riesling available at $100.00 a doz.; there are only four cases remaining. Stephen is still taking orders for Jeannette Clare Valley Shiraz at $120 a case and he would be pleased to take your orders. If sufficient orders are received in time the Shiraz could be delivered before Christmas.

Christmas Cakes and Plum Puddings priced at $13.00 each are available now; arrange to collect them at a Club meeting or purchase them from the Thrift Shop.

Rotary Christmas Cards: Glenys Ferguson has these at $10 a pack of 10. Be quick as Glenys is strongly on the job and they will not last long.

Lindsay England spoke about "Walk for the Clue" for the last time. Any late donations should be given to Treasurer Alex please. The total donation including the RC Unley matching grant will be about $700.00.

Greg McLeod asked members to check their details against the Club list. To enable that to happen the Bulletin will attach the list with the next edition.

Gerry Casburn spoke about EDS/Rotary global volunteer day this coming Sat. the 19th. at the MONARTO ZOO and DIK / SHOEBOXES of LOVE project at Salisbury. Gerry writes "Last night I provided a quick update on this weekend's programme for the Global Volunteer day, following the text from District that went to all Club Presidents. I don't believe everyone saw it so I have reproduced it here *

Rotary is finding it difficult to get support from Rotarians to work with the team from EDS and I am hoping that our club can find a few volunteers. To provide a little more detail, the programme of work is about 3 hours from 10am to 1pm, followed by a BBQ lunch and for Monarto Zoo a tour. If you are interested in helping can you get to me asap. I'll confirm the details once I know who is interested.

Sergeants Session

Sheila Evans had her first up Sergeants appearance and led us into a funny fine session as she laughed at herself and us. She finished her presentation with a most in appropriate anti-feminist joke about four animals or something. Lucky squares went to Ken Daly and the wine to Peter James.

Guest Speaker

Guest Speakers were STEP Trek Co-coordinator Steve Wasilewski and Mercedes College student Pip Ward. A moving video presentation highlighting the crippling poverty of our S.A. far north Aborigines communities and his projects manner of bringing awareness to S.A. High/College students. Pip spoke of her two visits north have changed her life. President Kaylene will talk to the Community Service Committee about Steve's proposed Bus Fund Raising project.
