From President Kaylene

Welcome to all members. The AGM is to be held tonight with nominations for Secretary, Treasurer and two Directors to be accepted. President Kaylene thanked Laurie Madigan and his committee for arranging a wonderful evening at the carols on 11/12/05 at the rotunda. Kaylene also thanked Natalie Bowen for supplying resources, Martin Cooper for arranging the BBQ, which was a great success, and Peter James as Santa.

A Reminder also to all members of the last meeting on WEDNESDAY MORNING, 21/12/05 at 7.00am at the Unley Club for a joint meeting with Hyde Park and Eastwood clubs.

This is the last meeting for the year and we will break until 10/1/06 where we will be back at U.C.S.C at 6.00pm for 6.30pm.

President Kaylene also reminded us of the objects of Rotary and at this time we show goodwill and peace to our fellow men/ladies.

THRIFT SHOP CHRISTMAS & NEW YEAR CLOSURE: Thrift Shop closes at 12.00 noon on Fri 23/12/05 and will reopen on Fri Jan 14 2006 for normal trading.

Spots

Greg Love spoke of wine supplies. O'Leary Walker 2005 Polish Hill Riesling available at $100.00 a doz. Limited cases remaining. Greg also read a piece (which is attached) on club governance, which would be useful for the newer members of the club.

Rex Martin: spoke to us on some past history of the club when Rex was president. Details are to be handed to Bob Mills the club historian for recording. The history was back in the old 952 days when a prize was given to a club for exemplarily service by a club.

Lindsay England reminded us of Xmas cakes and puddings that are still for sale. Please contact Lindsay.

Sergeants Session

John Russell was sergeant for the evening. Lucky squares went to Kevin Rogers & John Russell & Joan Reed won the wine as there was 2 draws on the night.

Guest Speaker

No guest speaker due to AGM.

The following members were accepted as new board members of the club: Sheila Evans, Secretary; David Payne, Treasurer; Jerry Casburn, Director; John Peacham, Director.

We welcome these members to their new positions and wish them all the best.
