Announcements from President Stephen

As this was special meeting to welcome potential Rotarians there were no Presidential announcements.

Board Positions

Board positions of two Directors and the Secretary and Treasurer will become vacant on 30th June 2007 and nominations for candidates for election to these positions will be received by Secretary Sheila Evans up to 8.00pm on Tuesday 21st November. An election to fill these positions will be held at the Annual General Meeting on Tuesday 5th December. Secretary Sheila Evans is eligible for re-election as is Treasurer David Payne. As Mavis Martin is completing the second year of Laurie Madigan's two-year term as a Director, she is eligible for election as a Director for a further two years in her own right. Bob Laws is in the second year of his two-year term as a Director and will retire from that position on 30th June 2007. This announcement will be printed in the bulletin from each week until nominations close.

Spots

There were no spots but I have repeated key information from the last meeting.

Mavis Martin Requested Rotarians to respond urgently to the request for numbers for the Rotary Foundation Multi-cultural night. Last week's information is repeated below:

The Rotary Foundation Dinner will be held on Tuesday November 14th at the Hungarian Club of SA Inc., 82 Osmond Terrace, Norwood, 7pm for 7.30pm, cultural attire, after five. Cost is $25 per person. A separate flyer has been circulated, further details from Ron or Chandra. It is assumed that all Rotarians are attending as this is a normal Rotary night, non attendance should be advised to Chandra, Janet Singh or Mavis Martin. Bob Laws is also seeking auction items for the night.

Mavis also advised of the Joint District's Rotary Foundation Dinner on Friday 24th November at the John Difede Reception Centre, Freeband Street, Windsor Gardens, at 7pm for 7.30pm. Cost is $40 per head.

Sergeant's Session

There was no sergeant's session or any prize draws.

Guest Speakers

The meeting was a Rotary information night designed to inform those attending the meeting of the activities of the three clubs who combined to host the evening, namely, Eastwood, Glen Osmond and our own club. The Presidents of the three clubs, Jack Garrett of the Rotary Club of Eastwood, Marshall Hanna of the Rotary Club of Glen Osmond and our own President, Stephen, had an opportunity to talk about their clubs and each clubs activities, as well as a feel for Rotary worldwide. Biased view; but Stephen gave a great account of our activities and of Rotary internationally. David Middleton also gave, in his usual eloquent style, a commentary on why he joined Rotary and what he gets and gives to it.

We were also fortunate to have Courtney Doherty of Youth Opportunities to talk about her life changing experiences through Youth Opportunities and the partnership with Rotary. Courtney has previously spoken to our club and to a group meeting. Courtney was joined by Alisha Osmond and Ben, who are recent graduates of the Youth Opportunities programme. Both spoke for the first time and demonstrated their newfound confidence gained from the programme. Rotary can be proud of its involvement.
