Guest Speakers

Our meeting this week was at the Hungarian Club in Norwood and our Rotary Foundation Committee provided a true multicultural evening providing great entertainment and an opportunity to raise funds for a great purpose.

President Stephen welcomed members and guests to the event and we were joined by members of the Rotary Club of Norwood who rescheduled one of their meetings to support Euan Miller (PDG and member of the Norwood club). The highlight of the evening was in two parts with dancers from the Estonian club demonstrating their countries national dances providing the first part. Costumes were colourful and gave a great sense of the traditions of that part of the world. The second part was made up by Filipino dancers who performed a variety of, again, colourful dances from their part of the world. Their costumes were both exotic and tuneful as they were anklet bells to accompany the music. The dances depicted scenes from the life in Filipino villages.

Our speakers for the evening were Hieu Van Le and Euan Miller. Hieu is Chairman of the South Australian Multicultural and Ethnic Affairs Commission, as well as a senior manager with ASIC. He spoke of the rich diversity available in Australia with its population that embraces many origins and cultural backgrounds. Euan Miller, a Kiwi (but we will not hold that against him) is Deputy Commissioner – Consumer Affairs for the SA government and has a history in Rotary dating back to 1974 when he joined the Essendon club.

David Middleton extracted maximum returns from a variety of items on auction at the event. Proceeds went to The Rotary Foundation.
