Spots

Bob Laws: advised the club that the fridge at the Thrift Shop had given up the ghost and anyone who has a working bar fridge that want to dispose of would be welcomed with open arms.

Chandra Sluggett gave the club an update on the status of our two Indigenous Health Scholarship students – Natalie and Carrie-Anne, Indigenous Health Scholarship Committee news, Dr Helen Sage and the ARHRF. Chandra's notes are copied below:

- Indigenous students: update Semester 1, 2007
- Natalie Moore – 2nd year, Paramedics at Flinders University:
 - Passed all subjects for Semester 1 – got 2 Credits & Distinction.
 - Second year at Uni so far was very intense and will become much more intense.
 - Attended 7 emergency field placements so far and more to do before end of year.
 - Down side of field placement - assigned to the Noarlunga station and witnessed couple of people that passed away at home which was difficult - wasn't entirely sure of what to say to the loved ones left behind.
 - On the upside - went to Port Pirie & were called to an unconscious collapse, where the elderly male was in cardiac arrest (his heart wasn't working) and we managed to bring him back to life. So that in itself was a great feeling.
- Carrie-Anne Mackenzie – Medicine at Flinders University.
 - Dr Sage's feedback: Carrie's is doing well and is a very committed student.
 - Carrie's feedback: Passed all exams, but needs to make up 1½% in Health Psychology in Semester 2
 - Spent a lot of time focusing on the massive science exams (which are highly weighed)
 - Weather down here... "I have never worn so many clothes in my life!"
 - Carrie miss Darwin a bit, except for the heat, and miss her partner - Cameron
- Indigenous Health scholarship program - Committee meeting – 29th July 2007
 - New Chairperson – Val Kirk (from District 9500). Chairpersons rotate every 3 years between two districts.
 - 2007 – 57 sponsored nationally. Of which, 22 sponsored in SA (10 new in 2007 and 12 continuing), 13 in NSW, 11 in Victoria, 8 in QLD, and 3 in WA.
 - We can sponsor 40 per year; our SA State Government (only the SA State Government) has committed to match dollar-for-dollar, up to $100,000 – with Rotary clubs' monies, which would allow us to sponsor 40 students.
 - We are planning an annual get-together, 1st one in April 2008 for the students, sponsoring clubs and will invite professional bodies – opportunity to promote the Indigenous Health Scholarship program and ARHRF.
 - Dr Helen Sage has been promoting the program, widely – including the following:
 - .. Her 'Class of 67' Group collected $3,700 at their recent 40th anniversary dinner – graduates practicing medicine in various parts of Australia and New Zealand have contributed so far. Stirling Rotary Club will use these funds to sponsor and mentor the student.
 - .. Professor Mick Sage (Dr Helen Sage's husband) – has raised $10,000 for a four-year commitment (i.e. $2,500/year) for an Indigenous Radiographer.
 - .. Southern Medical School Association – Dr Sporn and co has shown interest to sponsor student.
 - .. Helen Mayo from Physiotherapy Association has also shown interest to sponsor a Physio student.
 - .. A colleague of Dr Helen Sage in Melbourne has shown interest sponsoring a student in their district.
- A big thank you to past president Stephen Westgarth and all those from last year's community/vocational services committee (eg Bob Laws) for cold canvassing medico's in our Council area – we have potential 6 new students because of Drs Helen & Mick Sage's support of our program. That is $15,000 per year for six students to complete their respective University course!!! Dr Helen Sage and Professor Mick Sage deserve Paul Harris Fellow awards!
- ARHRF – Information / Conference / Cocktail party 3/8/2007
 - Every year, ARHRF hold its annual board meeting in different States/Territory. This year it was in SA – Stamford Grand, Adelaide
 - ARHRF started off with researching on health of Australians has now grown to include building a workforce of researchers and community education programs. This includes, various scholarships & programs, such as rural health medical (increase GP in rural areas), rural health service (assess effectiveness' of health services), mental health (beyond blue etc), transport industry service (truckies health survey) and forums on youth, kids and mental health.
 - Over the past 6 years, it has sponsored 146 students (this includes 68 Indigenous Health Scholarships across Australia – which are funded by Rotary clubs).
 - Earnings from investing grant monies allow ARHRF to spend almost 1/3 more every year than it receives in annual grants
 - Will receive new Commonwealth grant of $300,000 over 2 yrs to conduct forums on health issues – can focus on particular health matter or target group (eg youth/kids). One person from each Rotary district will be trained and appointed to sell it to Rotary Clubs in the District.
 - ARHRF will change focus from 2009 – will put greater emphasise and focus on children – new project/initiative includes 'Kids Matter'.
 - A new PhD scholarship will be offered from next year in honour of Geoff Bailey (initiated the Indigenous Scholarship Program); the first will go to an indigenous graduate in SA.

Guest Speaker - "Sailability SA Integrates Disabled Persons to Sail" – Graham Brett

Our chairman for the evening, Bob Mullins, introduced our speaker Graham Brett, Graham is we'll known to the club as the awardee for The Police Officer of the Year in 2006. Also joining Graham was Kiera Bennett a volunteer with Sailability.

The aim of Sailability is to integrate people with disabilities to sailing. The programme allows the participants to enjoy the freedom of sailing and to master a skill sufficient to allow many to sail single-handed. The dinghy used, a Liberty, is adapted for use by people with disabilities and is virtually unsinkable it costs $6000. Graham had brought a dinghy with him for the club to see. Three volunteers are needed per boat to assist the participants who are winched into and out of the boat. Currently the club, which is part of the Port Adelaide Sailing club, has seven boats. The programme has been taken up keenly with many arriving very early in the morning to enjoy a day's sailing. Some have progressed to buying their own boats and the programme has had participants from 8 to 88. Currently the club is trying to raise funds for a server, I think I got that right, which will enable those with low or no motor skills to enjoy the same freedoms.

Keira then spoke to the club about her participation and how she progressed from 35 metre yachts to the Liberty after a one-day conversion. Very passionate about the programme she is, this year, involving her husband who is also a keen sailor. As an illustration of the programme participants she spoke of one lady who was completely blind and had lost one leg, all to cancer, who sailed in competition single-handed using sound buoys and the feel of the wind on her face to gauge direction.

Overall the talk was inspirational and Bob thanked Graham and Keira for their talk.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Joe died, leaving a will that provided $30,000 for an elaborate funeral.

As the last of the visitors departed the affair, his wife, Helen, turned to her oldest friend and said, "Well, I'm sure Joe would be pleased."

"I'm sure you're right," replied friend Jody, who then lowered her voice and then leaned in close, "How much did this really cost?"

"All of it," said Helen. "Thirty thousand."

"No!" Jody exclaimed. "I mean, it was very nice, but $30,000?"

Helen replied, "The funeral was $6,500. I donated $500 to the church. The wake, food and drinks were another $500. The rest went for the Memorial Stone."

Jody computed quickly. "$22,500 for a Memorial Stone? My Word, how big is it?"

"Two and a half carats."
