Reminder Spots

Bob Laws thanked members who came to the Thrift Shop working bee on Sunday; a great time was had by all. Also, volunteers for the Saturday roster are needed; thanks to Glenys and Anne on the early shift, and Ken and Bob on the late shift. There is a Thrift Shop committee meeting this Saturday 10am at Bob's home.

Jerry Casburn: The Edinburgh Hotel has been booked for a Melbourne Cup Lunch. Indications were taken from the floor for expressions of interest. On the 19th of October our club is having a Quiz night, cost will be approx $15 which includes finger food and prizes. It will be at the Public Schools Club and members are encouraged to make tables of family and friends.

Martin Cooper: If any member has finished with the RDU magazine Martin has some cards that can be attached and then place in waiting rooms for distribution.

Our Guest Speaker: Tony Wight

Tony was introduced by Colin Schirmer. Tony used to be an accountant at Harris Scarfe before taking up reciting poetry. Tony gave three recitations of poetry, including Roald Dahl's interesting spin on Goldilocks and the Three Bears, and "Rain from Nowhere".

Rain from Nowhere by Murray Hartin

His cattle didn't get a bid; they were fairly bloody poor,
What was he going to do? He couldn't feed them anymore,
The dams were all but dry; hay was thirteen bucks a bale,
Last month's talk of rain was just a fairytale.
His credit had run out, no chance to pay what's owed,
Bad thoughts ran through his head as he drove down Gully Road.
"Geez, great grandad bought the place back in 1898,
"Now I'm such a useless bastard, I'll have to shut the gate.
"Can't support my wife and kids, not like dad and those before,
"Crikey, Grandma kept it going while Pop fought in the war."
With depression now his master, he abandoned what was right,
There's no place in life for failures, he'd end it all tonight.
There were still some things to do, he'd have to shoot the cattle first,
Of all the jobs he'd ever done, that would be the worst.
He'd have a shower, watch the news, then they'd all sit down for tea
Read his kids a bedtime story, watch some more TV,
Kiss his wife goodnight, say he was off to shoot some roos
Then in a paddock far away he'd blow away the blues.
But he drove in the gate and stopped – as he always had
To check the roadside mailbox – and found a letter from his Dad.
Now his dad was not a writer, Mum did all the cards and mail
But he knew the writing from the notebooks that he used at cattle sales.
He sensed the nature of its contents, felt moisture in his eyes,
Just the fact his dad had written was enough to make him cry."
Son, I know it's bloody tough; it's a cruel and twisted game,
"This life upon the land when you're screaming out for rain,
"There's no candle in the darkness, not a single speck of light.
"But don't let the demon get you, you have to do what's right;
"I don't know what's in your head but push the bad thoughts well away.
"See, you'll always have your family at the back end of the day;"
You have to talk to someone, and yes I know I rarely did.
"But you have to think about Fiona and think about the kids."

I'm worried about you, son, you haven't rung for quite a while,
"I know the road you're on 'cause I've walked every bloody mile.
"The date? December 7 back in 1983,
"Behind the shed I had the shotgun rested in the bristolow tree.
"See, I'd borrowed way too much to buy the Johnson place;
"Then it didn't rain for years and we got bombed by interest rates.
"The bank was at the door; I didn't think I had a choice,
"I began to squeeze the trigger – that's when I heard your voice.
"You said 'Where are you Daddy? It's time to play our game'
"I've got Squatter all set up, we might get General Rain.
"It really was that close, you're the one that stopped me son,
"And you're the one that taught me there's no answer in a gun.
"Just remember people love you, good friends won't let you down.
"Look, you might have to swallow pride and take that job in town,
"Just 'til things come good, son, you've always got a choice.
"And when you get this letter ring me, 'cause I'd love to hear your voice.
"Well he cried and laughed and shook his head, then put the truck in gear,
Shut his eyes and hugged his dad in a vision that was clear.
Dropped the cattle at the yards, put the truck away,
Filled the troughs the best he could and fed his last ten bales of hay.
Then he strode towards the homestead, shoulders back and head held high,
He still knew the road was tough but there was purpose in his eye.
He called his wife and children, who'd lived through all his pain,
Hugs said more than words – he'd come back to them again.
They talked of silver linings, how good times always follow bad,
Then he walked towards the phone, picked it up and rang his Dad.
And while the kids set up the Squatter, he hugged his wife again,
Then they heard the roll of thunder and they smelt the smell of rain.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A woman goes to the doctor for her yearly physical.
The nurse asks, "How much do you weigh?"
"120" the woman says.
The nurse puts her on the scales. It actually weighs 155.
The nurse asks, "What is your height?"
"5 feet, 8 inches" she says.
The nurse checks and sees that she actually measures 5 feet 5 inches.
The nurse then takes the woman's blood pressure and tells the woman that it is very high.
"Of course it 's high! " she screams, "When I came in here I was tall and slender. Now I am short and fat."

Thrift Shop Working Bee

Rotarians hard at work in the Thrift shop following the Working Bee. A good time was had by all, and we even sold some things.
