Our Guest Speaker: Rob Croser

Rob grew up in Maitland on the York Peninsular and was educated at Scotch College as a boarder. After graduating he worked in the Service for youth and it was during that time that Sheila got to know him as he would visit her weekly and provide legal services to the residents of Glenelg. He is now the Senior Solicitor with Legal Services commission with the Youth Court. In his other life he is the artistic director of the Independent Theatre Company and has Director approx 70 plays including Pride Beloved Country To Kill a Mocking Bird.

Rob was first employed with Legal Aid (Federal Government) in 1974 then transferred to the State Legal Aid system in 1979 before being asked to work in the Youth Courts in 1981 with a promise that he would have a replacement in 6 months time Following 6 weeks he made the decision very easily to stay in the position as he found that he enjoyed the work immensely that was 26 27 years ago. It was during the early stages of this job that he was asked to talk to youth who were being placed in to care for reasons of abuse or neglect in the family environment. Rob spoke of the process that was set in place to have free legal aid to all juveniles who were involved with the courts to enable them to have representation at any court hearing. This went from in 1981 of having 1 legal aid solicitor to currently have 3-4 full time personnel in that area. This scheme became law in 1988. South Australia has been one of the forerunners in the world of treating juveniles differently to adults in the legal system.

Once again, a very interesting speaker.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A London lawyer goes through a stop sign and gets pulled over by a Glasgow copper. He thinks that he is smarter than the cop because he is a lawyer from London and is certain that he has a better education than any Jock cop. He decides to prove this to himself and have some fun at the Glasgow cops expense!! Glasgow cop says, "License, please. "London Lawyer says, "What for?" Glasgow cop says, "You didn't come to a complete stop at the stop sign. "London Lawyer says, "I slowed down, and no one was coming. "Glasgow cop says, "You still didn't come to a complete stop. License, please. "London Lawyer says, "What's the difference? "Glasgow cop says, "The difference is, you have to come to complete stop, that's the law. License, please! "London Lawyer says, "If you can show me the legal difference between slowdown and stop, I'll give you my license; and you give me the ticket. If not, you let me go and don't give me the ticket. "Glasgow cop says, "Sounds fair. Get out of your vehicle, sir." The London Lawyer gets out of his car. The Glasgow cop takes out his truncheon and starts beating the !!!! out of the lawyer and says, "Now do you want me to stop, or just slow down?" Thank you Ron Schubert for the joke of the week
