Spots

Sergeants Session

The sergeant's session was conducted swiftly by Greg McLeod. Tonight the lucky square was won by President David.

Guest Speaker: Michelle Colmer – Persistence Pays

Our guest speaker this evening was introduced by Bob Mullins. Michelle travels near and far delivering her message to business groups and secondary schools, and the community at large. Our speaker has generously donated her services and time for our meeting. She will not only inspire you, but also challenge you, challenge you to think twice from now on before you ever say, "it can't be done", to know instead that anything is indeed possible if you want it enough!

She will also convince you that peanut butter must be respected at all times even if you don't like the taste!

Michelle spoke on her remarkable journey from a car accident at the age of 2½ when she was severely injured outside her parents' home. For weeks she was in a coma and suffered major brain injuries, which has left her with quite severe disabilities. She spoke of her parents' and brother's love and support during this time when they did not give up and helped her through every milestone. She endured hours of physical rehabilitation and speech therapy and, even though her parents were told to leave, that her future was very bleak she managed to prove them completely wrong. She went to school and is currently completing a course in Business Management. She has travelled overseas, bought her own house and is independent by driving her own car. She is planning more travel in the future to see her brother overseas.

As her introduction alluded to, she is a truly inspiring young person.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A blonde enters a store that sells curtains. She tells the salesman, "I would like to buy a pair of pink curtains."

The salesman assures her that they have a large selection of pink curtains. He shows her several patterns, but the blonde seems to have a hard time choosing. Eventually she selects a lovely pink floral print.

The salesman then asks what size curtains she needs. The blonde promptly replies, "Fifteen inches."

"Fifteen inches?" asks the salesman. "That sounds very small. What room are they for?"

The blonde tells him that they aren't for a room, but they are for her computer monitor.

The surprised salesman replies, "But, miss, computers do not need curtains!"

The blonde says, "Helllloooooooo! I've got windows!"
