Spot Reminders

Reno Elms: The Salvation Army are having the Grand Opening of the Re development and an invitation is extended to our Rotary Members if they would like to attend please see Reno.

Stephen Westgarth: Thank you to members who have paid their subs. If members are choosing to do the direct transfer in to the bank account please ensure you get a copy of the payment so that Stephen can tell what has been paid for.

Mavis Martin: Applications from RYPEN close at the end of this month. We have received no applications for RYLA but we may get a student through the District.

Ron Schubert: On the 1st of April our club is having a inter club meeting with Somerton Park. This will be at the International Motel on Anzac Highway. The Topic is "The spoken word is more powerful than the written". We are looking for debaters to take on the challenge. Cost is $22 per head.

Bob Mullins: Next weeks meeting is the annual bowls night with the Rotary Club of Mitcham. They are hosting the night and the dinner is in the form of a BBQ at $17 per head. The AFA Bowling Club is behind the Shell service station on Belair Road at Mitcham.

Bob Laws: Thrift Shop roster still has vacancies please help fill the voids. Also there are now some weekday positions available if anyone can help.

Jerry Casburn: The order for the Entertainment books has gone in so could all members please look at putting their orders in ASAP. There is an incentive of vouchers worth $160 for all books paid prior to the end of March. The club will make quite a good amount from the sale of these books.

Sergeants Session

The Sergeant for this evening was John Peacham who extracted many fines from members. Tonight the wine was won by David Payne and Joan Reed won the lucky square.

Guest Speaker: Peter Rohde - "Future Direction of the Port Adelaide Football Club"

Our guest speaker was introduced, rather aptly, by Mark Zada, one of our members who has a soft spot for Port Adelaide.

Peter Rohde is responsible for Football Operations. He joined Port Adelaide in 2005 after three years at the Western Bulldogs. Peter is responsible for all things football working closely with the coaching staff, planning, running and facilitating match committee and review meetings. Peter has vast experience at senior level playing 46 games for Carlton between, 1985-1987 and 54 games for Melbourne from 1988 - 1991. He was Senior Coach at the Western Bulldogs from 2002 - 2004 after coaching at Norwood where he won the SANFL Premiership in 1997.

Peter went on to explain about the running of the football club and also about the finances required to run a team like Port Adelaide. It takes 53 people on tour for interstate games which just alone is very expensive. He also explained the salary capping system. Today the club hosted Andrew Demetriou who came and spoke with the club and its members.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A man and his wife were spending the day at the zoo. She was wearing a loose fitting, pink dress, sleeveless with straps. He was wearing his usual jeans and T-shirt. As they walked through the ape exhibit, they passed in front of a large, silverback gorilla.

Noticing the wife, the gorilla went crazy. He jumped on the bars, and holding on with one hand and two feet he grunted and pounded his chest with his free hand. He was obviously excited at the pretty lady in the pink dress.

The husband, noticing the excitement, thought this was funny. He suggested that his wife tease the poor fellow some more by puckering her lips and wiggling her bottom. She played along and the gorilla got even more excited, making noises that would wake the dead.

Then the husband suggested that she let one of her straps fall to show a little more skin. She did... And the gorilla was about to tear the bars down.

Now show your thighs and sort of fan your dress at him,' he said. This drove the gorilla absolutely crazy, and he started doing flips.

Then the husband grabbed his wife, ripped open the door to the cage, flung her in with the gorilla and slammed the cage door shut. 'Now. Tell HIM you have a headache.'

Thanks Mavis, a good one
