Time: 6.00pm for 6.30pm.

Cost: $22.00 per head for a two-course meal.

Debate Subject: "That the spoken word is greater than the written word", Unley to argue the negative.

Come and support our team: President David, Sheila Evans and Jerry Casburn.

Spot Reminders

Stephen Westgarth: Thank you to members who have paid their subs. If members are choosing to do the direct transfer in to the bank account please ensure you get a copy of the payment so that Stephen can tell what has been paid for.

Bob Mullins: On the 1st of April our club is having a inter club meeting with Somerton Park. This will be at the International Motel on Anzac Highway. The Topic is "The spoken word is more powerful than the written". We are looking for debaters to take on the challenge. Cost is $22 per head.

Bob Laws: Thrift Shop roster still has vacancies please help fill the voids. Also there are now some weekday positions available if anyone can help.

Jerry Casburn: The order for the Entertainment Books has gone in so could all members please look at putting their orders in ASAP. There is an incentive of vouchers worth $160 for all books paid prior to the end of March. The club will make quite a good amount from the sale of these books.

Guest Speaker: Tanya Powell - "Mind Your Manners"

Mavis Martin introduced our guest speaker, Tanya Powell, who owns and runs the Tanya Powell Modelling Agency. With offices in both Adelaide and Melbourne, the agency offers career placements for models and training courses to those aspiring to join the industry.

Tanya's talk was not about the modelling business but about etiquette and its current place in modern society. Tanya explained that etiquette was derived from our past and reflects the background of the culture from which it stems. Australian etiquette is based primarily on the British culture and the practices adopted over time in that society. Most of the practices came as practical solutions to problems in our past. Giving several examples, Tanya explained that the modern practice of only filling a wine glass to the half way level came from banquets in medieval times, when food was spread on the table and those dining just weighed in with elbows flying everywhere. In this environment drinks were easily spilt and if the vessel was only half full it was less likely to spill. The practice of the man walking on the road side of the pavement came from muddy roads and coaches spraying mud onto the footpath, the man was there to take the full impact rather than it hitting the woman.

Tanya gave an entertaining and practical talk and doubtless many rough mannered Rotarians will have learnt something.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A blonde finds herself in serious trouble. Her business has gone bust and she's in dire financial straits. She's so desperate that she decides to ask God for help. She begins to pray..."God, please help me. I've lost my business and if I don't get some money, I'm going to lose my house as well. Please let me win the lotto."

Lotto night comes, and somebody else wins it. She again prays... "God, please let me win the lotto! I've lost my business, my house, and I'm going to lose my car as well."

Lotto night comes and she still has no luck. Once again, she prays. "My God, why have you forsaken me? I've lost my business, my house, and my car. My children are starving. I don't often ask you for help, and I have always been a good servant to you. PLEASE let me win the lotto just this one time so I can get my life back in order."

Suddenly there is a blinding flash of light as the heavens open. The blonde is overwhelmed by the Voice of God Himself...

"Sweetheart, work with Me on this..... Buy a ticket."

Thanks Stephen
