Spots

Bob Laws: The Thrift Shop roster still has vacancies please help fill the voids. Also there are now some weekday positions available if anyone can help.

Jerry Casburn: Entertainment books are selling well Please Jerry with any orders.

Our Guest Speaker: Claudine Butterworth - Alzheimer's Disease

Chairperson Jerry introduced Claudine who has been working at the Alzheimer's Australia since 2001. She previously worked in Public Relations and Fundraising for Minda Homes for 13 years. She is a teacher by profession and taught for 13 years in both State and Private schools. She has also been a member of the Lady Mayoress's Charitable Committee, served on the Board of the Special Olympics and was a member of the SA "Women of the Year Committee" 1986–2003.

Claudine explained that her work at the Alzheimer's Australia SA included organising all public Relation and Fundraising events and door knocks.

As well as doing all marketing, promotions, newspaper advertising and writing of editorials Claudine writes all submissions to Trusts and Foundations, as well as looking after bequests, and like tonight doing Public Speaking engagements.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

Five Englishmen in an Audi Quattro arrived at an Irish border checkpoint.

Paddy, the officer, stops them and tells them: 'It is illegal to put 5 people in a Quattro, Quattro means four'.

'Quattro is just the name of the automobile,' the Englishman retorts disbelievingly. 'Look at the papers, this car is designed to carry five persons.'

"You cannot pull that one on me," replies Paddy 'Quattro means four. You have five people in your car and you are therefore breaking the law.'

'The Englishman replies angrily, 'You idiot! Call your supervisor over I want to speak to someone with more intelligence!'

Sorry,' responds Paddy, 'Murphy is busy with 2 guys in a Fiat Uno.'
