PAUL HARRIS NIGHT

President David gave a history of the Unley Rotary Thrift shop. 35 years ago John Bonhsack husband of volunteer Phyl presented a feasibility study to start a Thrift shop. President David reminded us of the many projects that have come from the Thrift Shop e.g. as we heard tonight the Children of Chang Mai.

The shop first opened in 1973 on Glen Osmond Road with Pauline Daly assisting with the running of the shop. Later the shop moved to the Arkaba shopping centre then to the Rossiter's Centre until Target took that area over. We have moved once again to the new location a little further down Unley Road. We now earn over $50,000 per year and survived six moves during that time. There is an excellent history of the Thrift Shop that was written by Pat Limbert and is on our website.

The Paul Harris Awardees for 2007-2008 are: Joan Calder, Pam Goodgame, Colleen Marcos, Fiona Nettelbeck who has been with the shop since it began, Margaret Payne, Marni Phillips, and Sharron Tirrell. Congratulations and well deserved.

JOKE OF THE WEEK

A young blonde was on vacation in the depths of Louisiana.

She wanted a pair of genuine alligator shoes in the worst way, but was very reluctant to pay the high prices the local vendors were asking. After becoming very frustrated with the "no haggle" attitude of one of the shopkeepers, the blonde shouted, "Maybe I'll just go out and catch my own alligator so I can get a pair of shoes at a reasonable price!" The shopkeeper said, "By all means, be my guest. Maybe you'll luck out and catch yourself a big one!" Determined, the blonde turned and headed for the swamps, set on catching herself an alligator. Later in the day, the shopkeeper was driving home, when he spotted the young woman standing waist deep in the water, shotgun in hand. Just then, he saw a huge 9-foot alligator swimming quickly toward her. She took aim, killed the creature, and with a great deal of effort hauled it on to the swamp bank. Lying nearby were several more of the dead creatures. The shopkeeper watched in amazement. Just then the blonde flipped the alligator on its back. Frustrated, she shouts out, "Damn it, this one isn't wearing any shoes either!"

-----Yet another

Three blondes are in an elevator when the elevator suddenly stops and the lights go out. They try using their cell phones to get help, but have no luck. Even the phones are out.

After a few hours of being stuck with no help in sight, one blonde says to the others "I think the best way to call for help is by yelling together."

The others agree with the first, so they all inhale deeply and begin to yell loudly "Together, together, together..."
