President Ken's Announcements

HAPPY NEW YEAR ONE AND ALL

The Oval Experience

It should be noted that Unley members started the year on exactly the right note by kissing the hallowed turf of the Unley (Peter Motley) Oval, the home of the mighty Double Blues. In the absence of the editor who was enjoying his daughter's birthday, a top class reporter and photographer was appointed to record the activities (ie lets the editor off the hook!)

Highlights included:

- the presence of Graham and Patsy's grandchildren, Emma and Andrew
- the light souwesterly breeze (in contrast to last year)
- the eventual arrival of David Middleton who travelled via Damien's as he is prone to do
- Heather eating from an airline tray
- Diane thrashing Graham at Boule
- AND THE BIGGEST OF THEM ALL, the fabulous Sturt team in training

A very pleasant evening indeed.

The Back Page

Jerry's contribution to happiness in 2017

I changed my car horn to gunshot sounds. People get out of the way much faster now.

You know that tingly little feeling you get when you really like someone? That's just common sense leaving your body.

I didn't make it to the gym today. That makes five years in a row.

I decided to stop calling the toilet the "John" and renamed it the "Jim". I feel so much better saying I went to the Jim this morning.

The biggest lie I tell myself is."I don't need to write that down, I'll remember it."

If God wanted me to touch my toes, He would've put them on my knees.

Of course I talk to myself; sometimes I need expert advice.

At my age "Getting lucky" means walking into a room and remembering what I came in there for.

I am a Seenager. (Senior teenager) I have everything that I wanted as a teenager, only 60 years later:

I don't have to go to school or work.

I get an allowance every month.

I have a driver's license and my own car.

The people I hang around with are not scared of getting pregnant.

And I don't have acne.

Life is great. I have more friends I should send this to, but right now I can't remember their names.
